

Shadow's inferno

To all my fans, wishing you all the best
To those who hate me
I'm guessing this is driving you nuts seeing me smiling back at all the hate you sent
Seeing me wash my hands of all the shit you tried on me.
Yeah I was blind but now I can see
I couldn't walk but now I can
I put my faith into someone who will judge you
I put my trust into god
The lord had helped me though some hard times
And I know he will help me again if I ask
So for all the fools who think you can kick me when I'm down this is the only warning now
I will strike fear into you
You will pray to the lord and ask him to kill me
But not to worry I'm a head of in that line
I'll set fire to the world
And watch it as people wonder why
Why I forced myself not to give in Hear as people whisper shadows inferno
Hear as the angels of death come calling for you
See you in my fun fair
Where your mind games are useless
