

Shads' inferno
It's long over due

Demons ruling my world
Skeletons in the closet
Boogie men under the bed
I have them all
I can't walk down memory lane
The pains from the dark try to rule my beating heart
Will I ever have what I deserve?
I scream at the stars
Wishing for a wish
Demons rage in cages
Suicide isn't a fair game
I'm trapped in many riddles but there's no exit
I'm forever trapped in these lines
For an insight into madness unmask shadow
Reveal shads' to the world
Three people trapped in one mind
I used to write poems in minutes now it takes days
How the tables have turned
This should be a nightmare like de other inferno's
Finger prints on the window glass
The head of my foes in the freezer
Jason Voorhees eat your heart out
Wise words a secret with three people is easy to keep when two of them are dead
Sins done by other
I'm to blame
Forgiveness you ask
Solve a riddle with no answer
Forever running
It's unfair
Never at rest
This was shad's inferno
And it was long over due

By
Shadow

