

The heart attack inferno
Dedicated to your 1st, 2nd and last heart attack

Told the angels I didn't mean what I said
Told the demons its blood nothing more
Fall in and out with in crowd but they tried to fuck me so it was only fair that I meet them in their nightmares
Everyday I'm told I'm better off dead
Buy ye who laugh last laughs forever
I will never allow myself to be topped
Fuck being fake
Fuck being true
Just tell the world to fuck its self
Throw the first punch knock the world out
The numbness in my left arm is getting stronger now
As I write a new nightmare
I hope you take it all by means words don't hurt if you never fought
Pick the wrong things that what hurts more
I see steel table
I see demons fighting
I see the fact
I left codes hidden in book sleeves in the forever library
In the ashes of the wonderland when it should have been plain sight
You don't like us
You wish bad deeds upon us
But night after night we won't
The same magic is long dead
Used to say pull a new rabbit out of the hat, that last one is a bit dead
Now I realize the I'm on the table fighting to live
And if I don't I will come back as something who plans
I will conquer hell yet again
